

Cause # 89444

Estate of Maurice P.
and Alfred Hamilton

To the Judge:

I just received a letter from my brother, Alan Hamilton. The specific reports, statements, and bank account records had not been requested in writing by Wayne Cronquist as he told Alan. I did not refuse to pay his bill, but told him I did not have enough money in my account to do so.

There is a woman I knew by the name of Gina Cindro. She was the only one helping me cook, bath, comfort, and visit with my mother. She gained my trust. However, I believe now I was under a "spell" to give her money and send money to her in the guise of "helping the family". She made it sound so urgent. I have written a letter to Western Union requesting all records of my transactions. I must have ^{been} under a power to do what she asked - almost like a robot. We are attempting to locate this person. She was raising her sister's children, Cynthia, Angela & Michelle Rene & was using her sister's drivers licence.

We are submitting information that we can and will continue to do so.
